The Thompson Family.

Scotch Covenanters who came from Scotland to Ireland, and thence, in 1735, to America, settling first in the Cumberland Valley and east of Harrisburg, and subsequently at and about Thompsontown, Juniata County, Pennsylvania.

The information herein contained is published in this manner for the threefold purpose:

Of preserving it to the use of the writers' own families.

Of distributing it to the other branches of the family.

Of affording an opportunity to some one of building upon this small beginning, a more complete record of the genealogy of the family.

Should any one desire to take up this work, the writers would suggest an examination of the military records of the Revolutionary War and of property transfers between 1735 and 1800, in the County Records of Franklin, Cumberland and Dauphin Counties.

Pottsville, Pa., April 1st, 1887.

Genealogical Record of the Thompson Family.

Written Thomson prior to 1810; see stone tablet, southwest corner of stone mill at Mexico, Juniata County, and on west end of stone house at Thompsontown, "built by William and J. Thomson in 1798," and all deeds, letters, etc., of that and prior date.

From memoranda made by Theodore Samuel Thompson, of Thompsontown, Juniata County, Pa., between the years 1880 and 1885, upon information from his mother (Charlotte C. Patterson Thompson) and other sources. Added to by Hiram S. Thompson, of Pottsville, Schuylkill County, Pa., and Theodore S. Thompson, in 1885, 1886 and 1887.

The greater part of the earliest information below is derived from data furnished in 1857 by Charlotte Chambers Patterson, wife of William Thompson, Jr., (III. 4) son of William Thomson, Sr., (II. 4) of Thompsontown, Juniata County, Pa.

John Thomson, Sr., (I. 1) and brother James, originally from Scotland, emigrated from County Antrim, Ireland, about 1735, to Cross Roads, Chester County, Pa., and moved to Hanover Township, now Lebanon County, (Chester County then) near to Derry Church, still preserved and rebuilt in 1886. (They were Scotch Covenanters and doubtless worshipped at Derry Church). From Hanover Township, they moved to near (about ten miles from) Harrisburg, where John married his second wife, Miss Shotts; thence he moved to the farm three miles east of Thompsontown (afterwards owned by his sons, Peter and Thomas. Thomas died leaving his share to Peter. Then owned by Peter's son, John Peter, who died in 1882). He and two, perhaps three, wives are buried in a graveyard one and one-half miles east of Thompsontown.

James settled along South Mountain (Cumberland Valley and County then, now Franklin County and Chambersburg), and his descendants reside there still.

John, Sr., (I. 1) came up the Susquehanna and Juniata Rivers and landed at the mouth of the run, three miles east of Thompsontown. The first wife of John, Sr., (I. 1) was a Miss Greenleaf (or Greenlea). Miss Slocum, second wife, and Sarah Patterson, third wife, only are mentioned in the manuscript of Charlotte Patterson Thompson, of 1857. As his oldest daughter married a Greenleaf, the marriage of John, Sr., (I. 1) with Miss Greenleaf may be a mistake, although marrying cousins was common.

I. 1.—John Thomson's (Sr.) children by first wife, Miss Greenleaf, were:

II. 1.—Margaret Thomson, married to Mr. Greenleaf.

II. 2.—Sarah Thomson, married to Squire John McAlister, McAlisterville.

II. 3.—Elizabeth Thomson, married to Robert McAlister, McAlisterville, (Juniata County now).

II. 4.—William Thomson, Sr., born 1754; married Jane Mitchell, of Chestnut Level, Lancaster County, Pa.; died January 3rd, 1813, aged 59.

II. 5.—Robert Thomson, Sr., married to Sarah Mitchell, of Chestnut Level. (Sister to Jane).

II. 6.—Susan Thomson, married to Captain David Boal (in Perry County).

II. 7.—Jane Thomson, married to Robert Wiley, Washington, Pa.

II. 8.—Isaac Thomson. (Always spoken of as "Old Uncle Isaac" by the older part of the family). P. O., near Burton, Ohio, in 1816. Born in 1753; died in 1823. Had a son, James (III. 1), born 1780; died 1878. James (III. 1) had a son, P. T. Thompson (IV. 1), living in Middlefield, Geauga County, Ohio.

By his second wife (Miss Slocum):

II. 9.—John Thomson, Jr., married and lived in Juniata (then Cumberland County); moved to Butler County, Pa. The Thomsons and Pattersons, of Butler County, are his descendants. One of his sons married a sister of David Allen, and moved to Covington, Indiana, where they live now (1857).

By his third wife (Sarah Patterson):

II. 10.—Andrew Thomson, Sr., who married Jane Stuart. In 1816 he went from Thompsontown to a farm near Chillicothe, Ohio.

II. 11.—Peter Thomson, married Mary Patterson, who lived and died on the old homestead (of John, Sr., (I. 1).

II. 12.—Thomas Thomson was part owner of farm with Peter, and, dying without heirs, willed his share to Peter.

Of (I. 1) John Thomson, Sr.'s children by first wife:

II. 1.—Margaret Thomson, married Greenleaf. He was killed by Indians at Sunbury, Pa. Children went West. (Can learn nothing of them).

T. S. T., 1883.

II. 2.—Sarah Thomson, married William McAlister, Sr., (vide history of Juniata Valley, John B. McAlister). Had issue:

III. 1.—John McAlister, Jr., who died a few years ago (1857).

III. 2.—Robert McAlister, Jr., living near McCall (1857).

III. 3.—William McAlister, living near McCall (1857.)
